INTRODUCTION

NOW COME RICHARD ELLENBOGEN and ROGER CAIAZZA (collectively “Petitioners/Plaintiffs”), and file this Combined Petition pursuant to Article 78 and Complaint for Declaratory Judgment against the NEW YORK PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION (“PSC”) and the NEW YORK DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SERVICE (“DPS”). Petitioners/Plaintiffs allege as follows:

Nature of Action

1. This case seeks judicial review of a May 16, 2025 decision of the New York Public Service Commission (“PSC”) in its Case No. 15-E-0302, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. In that PSC case, the agency approved a petition by the New York State Energy Research and Development Authority (“NYSERDA”) proposing a Clean Energy Standard (“CES”) Tier 4 Implementation Plan. At least 194 intervening parties appeared before the PSC, and a listing of the PSC’s docket reflecting the identities of such intervenors is attached hereto as Exhibit B. However, there are fundamental mistakes on the PSC’s docket, including that the PSC docket may not accurately reflect all intervenors.¹

2. The PSC does not appear to have considered or rationally evaluated the evidence presented to it, to the effect that the Tier 4 Implementation Plan is unfeasible and unreasonable. Mr. Caiazza and Mr. Ellenbogen each submitted comments to the PSC before it adopted the Tier 4 Implementation Plan. Mr. Ellenbogen specifically notified the PSC that:

- There is a lack of available energy to support the Plan.
- Costs to implement the Plan will far exceed other, better solutions.
- These costs accrue based upon shortages of materials and skilled labor, high energy storage costs, and a lack of financial adequacy.

¹ Richard Ellenbogen has proof that he properly intervened at the PSC and that the PSC acknowledged his status as an intervenor on August 8, 2023. But the PSC’s docket did not list Mr. Ellenbogen as an intervenor until August 12, 2025, as this suit was being prepared, despite that Mr. Ellenbogen twice reached out to the PSC to request that the PSC’s error be corrected.

- Atmospheric Carbon Levels will rise far above what could be achieved using other alternatives.
- Planned timing mandates are unachievable.
- There are logical non-sequiturs contained in the agency's proposal.

3. The PSC does not appear to have even considered the comments submitted by Mssrs. Ellenbogen and Caiazza, much less adequately developed its decisions in a way that addresses those comments.

4. It is well established in the Third Department that a combined petition under Article 78 and Complaint for Declaratory Judgment is the proper mechanism to challenge certain agency actions. Matter of Clean Air Coal. of W. N.Y., Inc. v. N.Y. State Pub. Serv. Comm'n, 2024 NY Slip Op 24288, ¶ 4 n.3, 85 Misc. 3d 665, 675, 223 N.Y.S.3d 837, 845 (Albany Co. Sup. Ct. 2024). A combined CPLR article 78 proceeding/declaratory judgment action is commenced “by filing and serving a notice of petition and a summons under a single index number, along with a combined petition/verified complaint.” Matter of Newton v Town of Middletown, 31 AD3d 1004, 1005, 820 N.Y.S.2d 154 (3d Dept 2006). “The summons invokes jurisdiction for the declaratory-judgment-action component while the notice of petition performs the same function for the Article 78 aspect of the case.” Vincent C. Alexander, Prac Commentaries, McKinney's Cons. Laws of NY, Book; 7B, CPLR § 7804:5; see also CPLR § 304 (a) and 403 (a).

5. In part, this is an action under Article 78 of the Civil Law and Practice Rules to set aside the PSC's May 16, 2025 decision as unreasonable. “The administrative agency charged with enforcing a statutory mandate has broad discretion in evaluating pertinent factual data and inferences to be drawn therefrom, and its interpretation will be upheld so long as not irrational or unreasonable.” Matter of 333 E. 49th Assocs., LP v. N.Y. State Div. of Hous. & Cmty. Renewal, Office of Rent Admin., 2007 NY Slip Op 4546, ¶ 1, 40 A.D.3d 516, 516, 837 N.Y.S.2d 63, 64 (1st Dept. 2007). But just because an agency is permitted broad discretion and deference, that does not mean that a reviewing court has no role to play. A “reviewing court must be presented with a record containing factually meaningful findings... Otherwise, this Court's mandate -- intended to be a conscientious review power over governmental action -- will be transformed into a superficial habit of ‘rubber stamping’ the most vacuous statements paraded before us as findings of fact.” Id. at 66 (Marlow, J, dissenting).

6. “The very fact that the scope of judicial review with respect to the exercise of discretion by administrative officers or boards is extremely limited makes it imperative that the courts exercise the necessary supervision to assure that the decisional process on the administrative level is free from impermissible or irrelevant considerations or unsupported conclusions.” Rochester Colony, Inc. v. Hostetter, 19 A.D.2d 250, 254, 241 N.Y.S.2d 210, 215 (4th Dept. 1963).

7. This case is also, in part, a declaratory judgment action. “A declaratory judgment action is unquestionably a proper procedure...to review a quasi-legislative act of an administrative agency...” Lakeland Water Dist. v. Onondaga Cnty. Water Auth., 24 N.Y.2d 400, 408, 301 N.Y.S.2d 1, 7, 248 N.E.2d 855, 859 (1969) (internal quotations and citations omitted). To the extent that the PSC has engaged in an arguably legislative or quasi-legislative act by approving the Tier 4 Implementation Plan, petitioners seek declaratory judgment that the Plan is void.

Parties

8. Richard Ellenbogen is a resident of the State of New York and the CEO of Allied Converters. He intervened in PSC Case No. 15-E-0302 on August 8, 2023. He submitted comments in that PSC case on five occasions: February 16, 2025, February 3, 2025, July 25, 2024, February 18, 2024, and August 12, 2023. He is an engineer by training. Mr. Ellenbogen decarbonized his own factory starting in 1999 and those measurements resulted in the Public Service Commissions Case 08-E-0751 to reduce power line losses. He was an invited speaker in a PSC hosted Utility Conference in 2008 for Line Loss.

Mr. Ellenbogen was an early adopter of renewable technologies going back to the 1990's and decarbonized both his home and business two decades ago. He frequently speaks on these topics.

9. Roger Caiazza is a resident of the State of New York. He intervened in PSC Case No. 15-E-0302 on July 17, 2023. He submitted comments to the PSC jointly with Richard Ellenbogen on February 3, 2025.

10. The New York Public Service Commission is a state agency created by NY Pub. Serv. Law § 5. On May 16, 2025, it issued an order in Case No. 15-E-0302, which is challenged in this case.

11. The New York Department of Public Service is a state agency created by NY Pub. Serv. Law § 3. The PSC is housed within the Department of Public Service.

12. The New York State Energy Research and Development Authority is a state agency created by NY Pub. Auth. L. § 1852. It was the petitioner in PSC Case No. 15-E-0302.

13. Exhibit B contains a full list of all intervenors in PSC Case No. 15-E-0302. These intervenors are here named as necessary parties and/or real parties in interest only. Mssrs. Caiazza and Ellenbogen disclaim the intent to seek any relief as against the individuals listed in Exhibit B.

Jurisdiction and Venue

14. To the extent that this matter is brought pursuant to Article 78, venue is proper in this Court pursuant to NY CPLR § 506 (b) because the PSC maintains its offices in Albany County and took the actions complained of herein within Albany County.

15. To the extent that this matter is a declaratory judgment proceeding, venue is proper in this Court pursuant to NY CPLR § 505 because the PSC maintains its offices in Albany County.

Factual Background

16. On October 11, 2024, the NYSERDA filed a petition proposing a Clean Energy Standard (“CES”) Tier 4 Implementation Plan as required by the PSC’s CES Modifications Order. Case 15-E-0302, Order Adopting Modifications to the Clean Energy Standard (issued October 15, 2020).

17. Richard Ellenbogen and Roger Caiazza both provided comments to the PSC. Their comments are attached hereto as collective Exhibit D, and are incorporated by reference here as if fully set forth herein. Also attached as Exhibit E is a true and correct copy of a letter that two members of the state's Climate Action Council wrote on July 19, 2025, echoing many of the same concerns of Mssrs. Ellenbogen and Caiazza.

18. Mr. Ellenbogen has been warning NYSERDA and the PSC of the flaws in its renewable energy strategy as set forth specifically herein and in his comments to the PSC for years. His first meeting with NYSERDA to explain these issues was in May, 2019. His first meeting with the PSC was in January, 2020, at which time Mr. Ellenbogen explained the issues to Chairman Rhodes. Both meetings were arranged by John Ravitz, the COO of the Business Council of Westchester, who was also present at the meetings. In short, Mr. Ellenbogen argued that the PSC's plan would not decrease carbon emissions, but would impact grid reliability in a very negative way, possibly leaving millions of New Yorkers without adequate energy.

19. Since Mr. Ellenbogen made his comments to the PSC, the New York Independent System Operator ("NYISO") released a document called "Power Trends" in June, 2025 with numerous passages within that document supporting the positions expressed by Mr. Ellenbogen. The NYISO operates New York's utility "grid" and is the best possible source for utility information within New York State, yet the PSC are ignoring their findings, which have confirmed Mr. Ellenbogen's earlier expressed fears and concerns with the PSC's plan. This willful ignorance is endangering the people of NY State by creating energy scarcity and unreliability.

20. As Mr. Ellenbogen informed the PSC, Mr. Ellenbogen's analysis, and research done independently at Cornell, indicates that even if all of the renewables specified in the CLCPA are installed, the state will still be over 100,000 Giga Watt Hours (GWh) short of what is needed to reliably operate the grid and serve New York customers, and there will be hundreds of hours of rolling blackouts annually.

21. To make matters worse, the state is falling behind NYSDERDA's projected renewable facility installation rate because of interconnection issues due to trying to overlay distributed renewables on a system that was designed for large centralized power plants, high costs, labor shortages, commodity shortages, and other issues. These are not temporary problems. Further, when it was proposed in 2011, the Champlain Hudson Power Express Power Cable was originally designed to be a summer peaker offset. Now, with New York State's building electrification plan, the winter loads will far exceed the summer loads.

22. Renewable generation installations are falling well behind the projected rate, with solar projects being canceled because of high costs and interconnection issues. Projects that aren't being canceled are being delayed. Offshore wind is also experiencing major delays in installation rates

23. As set forth in its "Power Trends" report, NYISO has declared that the reliability issues are of immediate concern, not some distant event and they are affecting generating plant issues now.

24. In five separate filings with the PSC, Mr. Ellenbogen alerted the Commission to the dangers that current PSC policy is exposing the residents of NY State to. Not only will the policies fail to decrease the rates of carbon emissions, in many cases they will actually increase carbon emissions. Despite being warned about that, the PSC has not considered this in their ruling.

25. Mr. Ellenbogen's February 16, 2025 filing articulated how the PSC could have successfully implement a reduced carbon system at a far lower cost to the NY State ratepayers without negatively impacting grid reliability. An analysis conducted by Roger Caiazza, a retired meteorologist with over forty years of experience, determined that Mr. Ellenbogen's proposal would result in over a 50% emissions reduction at any given location and a 17% reduction across the entire system. A more elaborate proposal using carbon capture would result in a 75% reduction across the system. Either option could be implemented at a fraction of the cost of current

26. It became apparent to Mr. Ellenbogen during the proceedings that the implications of much of what he wrote was not understood by the PSC. The PSC's failure to engage with or offer any reasoned rejection of Mr. Ellenbogen's comments amplifies those concerns.

27. On May 16, 2025, the PSC issued an order approving the NYSERDA petition. That order does not refer to or even implicitly address the concerns raised by Mssrs. Ellenbogen and Caiazza.

28. The failure to address the concerns set forth in comments by Mssrs. Ellenbogen and Caiazza illustrates that the PSC was not engaged in reasoned decision-making when it issued its May 16 2025 order approving the Tier 4 Implementation Plan.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Seeking Declaratory Judgment

29. Petitioners/Plaintiffs re-allege paragraphs 1-28 as if fully set out herein.

30. Petitioners/Plaintiffs are aggrieved by the PSC's May 16, 2025 decision, which was issued contrary to law and without considering or acting upon the comments submitted by Petitioners/Plaintiffs.

31. Petitioners ask this Court to enter a judgment declaring that:

- a. The May 16, 2025 decision of the PSC was issued improperly and/or unlawfully;
- b. The PSC's May 16, 2025 decision is set aside and/or void; and
- c. The PSC must reconsider the comments submitted by the Petitioners/Plaintiffs and reissue a decision in Case No. 15-E-0302 which comports with the law and is reasoned in its application of facts.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Seeking Injunctive Relief Under Article 78

32. Petitioners re-allege paragraphs 1-31 as if fully set out herein.

33. Petitioners are entitled to injunctive relief vacating the May 16, 2025 decision of the PSC.

34. Petitioners ask the Court to vacate the PSC's May 16, 2025 decision, and remand this matter to the PSC for entry of a reasoned decision that complies with the law.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners request the declaratory and injunctive relief herein sought, and an award for their costs and such other and further relief as the Court shall deem proper.

Respectfully submitted this the 12th day of September, 2025.

AFFIRMATION OF

I, Richard Ellenbogan, pursuant to CPLR § 2106, hereby affirm as follows:

1. I am an adult resident and domiciliary of Westchester County, New York. I am also an intervenor in the New York Public Service Commission's administrative proceeding which has been assigned Docket No. 15-E-0302. I am competent to testify to the matters set forth herein based upon my personal knowledge and review of the Public Service Commission's docket.

2. The public docket for the above-referenced Public Service Commission proceeding is attached hereto as Exhibit A. It indicates that there are 193 parties to that administrative proceeding. But that may or may not be accurate; as recently as August 6, 2025, I was not listed as an intervenor on the public docket on the Public Service Commission's website, even though I have proof that I am an intervenor and the Public Service Commission acknowledged my status as an intervenor in email correspondence.
3. My position is that the Public Service Commission is the only necessary party to this case, because I am challenging the decision entered by the Public Service Commission on May 16, 2025. However, in an abundance of caution, and because numerous other parties have appeared in the underlying administrative proceeding and may be affected if the May 16, 2025 order of the Public Service Commission is set aside or otherwise invalidated or modified, I seek to serve all parties to the underlying administrative proceeding in an abundance of caution.
4. Effecting personal service on 193 parties to the underlying administrative proceeding would be impracticable within the meaning of CPLR § 308 (5). Specifically, I estimate that it would require approximately $20,000 in payments to a process server, even assuming that all parties were served on the first attempt with no difficulties. But that is not all: some parties also reside in Ontario, Canada, such that personal service would need to be accomplished across international borders. And because an Article 78 proceeding must be commenced within 120 days, CPLR § 306-B, it would be necessary for me to serve all 193 parties in this matter quickly because the decision I seek to challenge was issued on May 16, 2025.

5. I first spoke to Matthew Hardin, my counsel, on July 31, 2025. Mr. Hardin is a solo practitioner, and has informed me he is not capable of arranging for service of process on almost 200 individuals before the 120 day period described above elapses. Similarly, I am not financially prepared to pay the costs of service of process on such a large number of individuals.
6. To my knowledge, all parties in the underlying Public Service Commission administrative proceeding consented to electronic service of all filings in that administrative proceeding. Such parties were served via email. I have no reason to believe that such parties would not similarly consent to electronic service related to the same Public Service Commission proceeding, simply by virtue of the matter now being pending in this Court rather than administratively.
7. For the reasons set forth above, I hereby request that I be permitted to serve all parties to the underlying Public Service Commission proceeding, Docket No. 15-E-0302, via email to the email addresses listed on the Commission's public docket. Additionally, I am willing to file a copy of the instant ex parte motion, and all other papers in this matter, on the Commission's public docket, which will automatically result in email service to those individuals through the Public Service Commission's electronic service system.
8. I do not request to serve the Public Service Commission itself via alternative means. I am happy to serve the Commission and the Department of Public Service via the ordinary means.

I affirm this 12th day of September, 2025, under the penalties of perjury under the laws of New York, which may include a fine or imprisonment, that the foregoing is true, and I understand that this document may be filed in an action or proceeding in a court of law.
